BRAIN RENAISSANCE

The greatest renaissance begins when you understand the mind you carry within you.

Your brain is not fixed in one final form.

It adapts through learning, experience, attention, emotion, and practice.

Instead of asking:

"What is wrong with me?"

Begin asking:

"What can I understand, develop, and improve?"

Curiosity ? Attention ? Practice ? Feedback ? Adjustment ? Mastery

The brain changes when we challenge it, train it, and understand it.

Memory Sentence(TM)

The brain changes when we challenge it, train it, and understand it.
